MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT : HSCA Security

1. At our meeting with Mr. Cornwell this morning I repeated to him the expression of concern from Mr. Carlucci over the news that the Committee, in its drawdown, will be letting all of its security officers go. I emphasized the need for security controls in the last days of the Committee. Their security man, among other things, had controlled the Xerox machine. I mentioned some of the problems in the last days of the Pike Committee.

2. Mr. Cornwell had no reaction except to say that he would report our concern to Mr. Blakey.

Please process Mr. Richard Anderson of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence for an Agency badge. As your records probably indicate he has SI, TK and [Redacted] clearances and as a member of the staff of the Subcommittee on Oversight he can be expected to use his badge frequently. Thanks in advance.
